*****

Welcome to the January 2005 edition, the first of our seventh year of publication. I trust that everyone had a very happy and healthy holiday season. I look forward to another great year of web sites!

Unfortunately, many of us probably awoke the day after Christmas to hear and see the devastating and shocking news from Asia of the 9.0 earthquake and resulting tsunamis which killed well over 100,000 people plus injured and displaced millions. This is just another example of the power of nature and our inability to control its force.

Relief efforts have sprung up in hundreds of countries around the world. As photos, video tapes and eye-witness reports continue to come in from some of the most remote parts of the affected areas, the true scope of the disaster continues to grow. Our Monthly Special Zone for January will focus exclusively on this natural and human disaster.

If you haven't taken the time to contribute to one of your local or national relief organizations, please do not hesitate. The impact of this event is far-reaching and will alter the face of this region of the planet, and its people, for years to come.

We'll learn a little about the various countries in the region as well as explore sites which explain more about earthquakes, tsunamis and other forms of natural disasters that can strike without warning.

THE MONTHLY SURVEY

LAST MONTH'S SURVEY

I thought that last month's survey question, "Who is your choice for the "2004 Person of the Year 2004", would draw a large reaction for our readers. Wrong!

Only 12 people took the time to respond. Very disappointing.

The number one choice, with a stellar number of 3 votes was President George W. Bush, with a few others mentioned such as Colin Powell, Bill Gates, Alexander Putin, Lance Armstrong, David Brudnoy and Barak Obama.

THIS MONTH'S SURVEY

We'll keep trying to spark reaction, this time with our focus on New Year's Resolutions. Many of us make a resolution, or two, for the New Year. Unfortunately many of them are broken before the New Year is a few days, perhaps hours old!

Our question is:

What was your 2005 New Year's Resolution-- (and, have you kept it so far), that is if you made any at all.

Please send your response, by e-mail, to hfnewsletter@yahoo.com

*****

THE COMMENTS ZONE

David Norrie, Auckland New Zealand: Enjoy your news letters very much although I don't have time to contribute.

Gilles Letourneau, Montreal, Quebec: I have to send you my annual thank you for the great work on the HF Newsletter. It is very appreciated by me and my sister. We go through it every month, discovering great new web sites. I would really enjoy seeing more people send in web sites. It's not very hard, and makes the newsletter even more pleasant!

THE JANUARY ZONE

This month, I'm changing the resource for the Monthly Zone information. Each month we will feature the monthly page from Wikipedia, the free, on-line encyclopedia.

Each month's page will feature an overview of the month, plus feature some background and general information on the month itself. The actual monthly calendar, clickable day by day, gives a list of special events in history, famous birthdays, anniversaries, etc. for each day.

Here is the link for the month of January.

From the ARRL, an article, and links to other articles, about how ham radio came to the aid of the tsunami victims.

18TH ANNUAL WINTER SWL FESTIVAL

<http://swlfest.com/>

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

This convention is the largest gathering of listeners to the radio spectrum -- longwave, mediumwave, shortwave (broadcast, utilities, pirates), VHF/UHF, FM, scanners, television and satellites -- in the United States, perhaps the world, held in Kulpsville, Pennsylvania, near Philadelphia. About 200 persons from around the world attend each year. It is a nice way to break out of the doldrums of the northern hemisphere winter. Broadcaster representatives, clubs, and vendors attend. This year's event will be held March 11 & 12. For complete details, and a registration form, please visit this website.

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

Welcome to Radiolinks.net, the links directory designed for people in Radio! We are building the most complete directory of links especially selected for people who work in the radio industry. Help us build this directory by adding your favorite links. Feel free to e-mail us with suggestions for new or expanded categories. We hope Radiolinks.net will be your favorite source for links to radio oriented web sites! The site now has over 2900 links in 19 categories.

MEDIA RADIO

<http://www.mediaradio.ca/cgi-bin/liveradio.cgi>

VIA Elmer Standish, Courtenay, British Columbia

Mediaradio.com offers to you the radio stations of the world broadcasting live on the Internet, helping you rediscover the local radio stations and their unique programming. Mediaradio.com, a.k.a. Live Radio! began modestly in 1995 as a support for teaching Internet technologies by Dr. Denis Hamelin, then professor in Computer Science at the University of Quebec at Chicoutimi (Canada). Its accidental discovery by a few regular users at first and by more and more later lead to its official launching on May 14th, 1997. On October 1st, 1999, Live Radio became part of the new Mediaradio.com domain to become its flagship site.

I LOVE RADIO.ORG

<http://radio.blogware.com/>

VIA Janice & Steve Karlock, Dorval, Quebec

This is Tod Maffin's page of all things radio, classified by various subjects, keeping readers up to date on developments in radio. Maffin says this page was created "because television is for those who lack information".
